TRANSLATIONS

Support is provided to foreign publishing houses and theatres that publish works translated from Danish. Support is provided for translation costs of fiction and non-fiction works of general cultural interest translated by professionals.

Danish literature outside Denmark. Support may also be provided to defray costs in connection with Danish authors' participation in literary festivals, readings and publication events abroad. Support may be provided to foreign authors travelling to Denmark on the same basis.

SAMPLE TRANSLATIONS

Foreign translators, theatres and publishers may apply for support to finance sample translations of Danish literature.

PRODUCTION

Publishers may apply for production support for especially expensive works and illustrated works.

EVENTS

Subsidies for literary events and promotion of Danish literature abroad. Applications for subsidies are accepted from foreign publishers, diplomatic representations abroad, cultural institutions and others who wish to promote and increase knowledge about

NETWORK

Network support is provided to activities in local networks of translators from Danish. The networks must strengthen translators' access to knowledge about Danish language and literature, and at the same time ensure that there are frameworks for new, promising translators.

RESEARCH

Support may be provided to foreign publishers who wish to acquire an insight into contemporary Danish literature and visit Danish publishers, festivals etc., to strengthen networks and dialogue between the Danish and international literary partners. In addition travel grants can also be awarded translators of Danish literature for research purposes (meetings, residencies etc.).

All categories can be applied through the funds 'Danish literature abroad and foreign literature in Denmark' and 'Danish and foreign literature for children and young adults'. Both funds have two annual application deadlines. For support to inter-Nordic translations, please see "Nordic Translation Fund".
